

SPECTATOR TICKET REFUND POLICY

Thank you for considering attending a Expofest Productions cheerleading event. We look forward to hosting an exciting and memorable event for all spectators.

Tickets are non-refundable. However, if an event were to be cancelled, all purchased spectator tickets will be eligible for a full refund. Refunds for canceled events will be automatically processed without the need for a refund request.

Tickets will be non-refundable in the case of force majeure events. Force majeure events include but are not limited to natural disasters, acts of God, war, civil unrest, terrorism, government regulations, and other circumstances beyond the control of the event organizers.

Please note that this refund policy is subject to change, and any updates will be communicated through our official website and communication channels.

Thank you for your understanding and support. We look forward to welcoming you to Expofest Productions Events!

Sincerely,

Expofest Productions Organizing Committee
